

| Key Facts About Minnesota's Infrastructure                                  |          |                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8 public use airports inMinnesota                          |          | 4 major water ports                                                                                                                                                     |
| 13,346 bridges, 4.7% of whichwere structurally deficient in2019     |          | 4,258 miles of rail across the state                                                                                                                             |
| 53 high hazard dams                                                         |          | <ul> <li>16% of roads are in poor</li> <li>condition. Each motorist pays</li> <li>$543 per year in costs due to</li> <li>driving on roads in need of repair</li> </ul> |
| $7.5 billion total drinking waterinfrastructure needs over 20years |          | $818 million gap in estimated school capital expenditures                                                                                                       |
| 458 outages between 2008 and 2017                                    |          | 3,940,443 tons of municipal solid waste                                                                                                                                 |
| 48 Superfund NationalPriorities List sites                              |          | $7.37 average monthly stormwater fee                                                                                                                            |
| 260 miles of inland waterways                                               |          | 106 million passenger trips inMinnesotain 2018                                                                                                                      |
| 198 miles of levees protect62,600 residents               |          | $2.4 billion in wastewaterneeds                                                                                                                                    |
| $14,004,011 in deferred parkmaintenance                         | A |                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Find out more at www.infrastructurereportcard.org/Minnesota                 |          |                                                                                                                                                                         |

Produced in 2021, data years vary